RESPONSE TO RESTRICTION REQUIREMENT

ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER FOR PATENTS
ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA 22313

SIR:

In response to the Official Action dated May 29, 2003, Applicants elect, with traverse, Group II, Claims 1-10, for further prosecution.

Based on the groupings provided by the Examiner in paper number 8, it appears that the present invention has been restricted into five macro Groups: Group I (called Groups
1-6); Group II (called Groups 7-12); Group III (called Groups 13-18); Group IV (called Groups 19-23); and Group V (called Groups 24-29). These "groups" differ only on the basis of the identity of the amino acid sequence. Therefore, it was Applicants belief that the present action is a Restriction and Election of Species Requirement in which they are to choose between one of the macro groupings and then for the elected group elect a single amino acid sequence.
